

SUZANNE GIESEMANN

AUTHOR-SPEAKER-EVIDENTIAL MEDIUM

LONG BIO

Suzanne Gieseemann has experienced one of the most unique career transitions ever – a career transition that spans dimensions. Suzanne is a retired U.S. Navy Commander. She served as a commanding officer, as special assistant to the Chief of Naval Operations, and as Aide to the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff on 9/11. Today she is the author of eleven books, a spiritual teacher, and an evidential medium.

An acclaimed inspirational speaker, she captivates audiences as she brings hope, healing, and comfort through her work. Suzanne’s gift of communication with those on the other side provides stunning evidence of life after death. In her work, Suzanne addresses questions about the purpose of life, the nature of reality, and attuning to higher consciousness. Her work has been recognized as highly credible by afterlife researcher Dr. Gary Schwartz, Ph.D., and best-selling author Dr. Wayne Dyer. She serves on the executive council of Eternea, where she is the chairman of the Spirituality Leadership Council, and she serves on the advisory board of the Academy for Spiritual and Consciousness Studies.

Suzanne has a Master's Degree in National Security Affairs. In addition to her command tour and duties as aide to the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff she served tours in naval intelligence, she taught political science at the U.S. Naval Academy, and was a plans and policy officer for the U.S. Southern Command. Her overseas assignments were in Panama and Japan. Her military decorations include the Combat Action Ribbon and the Defense Meritorious Service Medal.

When Suzanne first began researching and writing the Hay House published book, The Priest and the Medium, she never dreamed that she would one day connect with the unseen world herself. After years of meditation, however, she began to have her own intuitive experiences, which led her to several classes on mediumship and to an intensive course at the respected Arthur Findlay College of Psychic Sciences in Stansted, England. Her eye-opening experiences there allowed her to develop her contact with the unseen world to the point where she now gives private readings, connecting people with their loved ones who have passed. Her experiences with inspirational writing and inspired poetry are published daily on her blog. She co-authored a how-to book of evidential mediumship with internationally acclaimed medium Janet Nohavec, Where Two Worlds Meet, and Janet Nohavec's compelling biography, Through the Darkness. The story of Suzanne's transition from Navy Commander to her current work as an intuitive counselor is chronicled in her memoir, Messages of Hope, which is featured in a documentary by the same name. Her most recent book, Wolf's Message, has been called “a masterpiece of intrigue and “an authentic portal to the other side” by Caroline Myss. It describes the communications Suzanne had with the departed soul of a young man called Wolf, the web of clues that he left for Suzanne and his parents to unravel, and the uplifting message of hope and joy that emerges from this fascinating read.
